

This has to be one of the biggest jokes I have ever heard of . I spend my money every month on this product, therefore no government should be able to limit what I listen to. If the other radio stations feel like they are being threathed then they had better begin to change because what they provide is free.

Ryan Maher